

A topographic map of a rural area in Modena, Italy. The map shows numerous land parcels outlined in black, many of which are filled with diagonal hatching. Elevation points are marked with small dots and numerical values ranging from 40.7 to 45.8. Several roads are depicted as double or single lines, including "C.na Bottarello" and "STATALE". A canal labeled "Canale" runs along the left edge. A building complex is labeled "Fornace R.D.B.". A specific parcel, located roughly in the center-left, is highlighted with a thick pink border. In the bottom right corner, there is a legend box titled "Legenda" containing a pink square and the text "AES8a - Unità di Modena". A north arrow is positioned in the top right corner.
